EcoVadis Gold Rating: DOMO Chemicals sets the bar for sustainability leadership

- DOMO earns prestigious EcoVadis Gold rating and moves into top 5% of industry rankings.
- Leading automotive suppliers such as ITW value the importance of the globally recognized EcoVadis certification label.
- CEO Yves Bonte envisions DOMO setting the industry benchmark for sustainability by 2030.

Leading engineering materials manufacturer DOMO Chemicals has been awarded the prestigious EcoVadis Gold rating, highlighting its progressive approach to sustainability. With a 13-point improvement over last year, DOMO now ranks in the top 5% of all companies rated by EcoVadis.

DOMO's latest Gold rating demonstrates its commitment to shared values, fostering long-term and trusted partnerships with its suppliers and customers.

For example, ITW Automotive, a Fortune 200 manufacturer of automotive plastic components and an avid user of DOMO's sustainable TECHNYL®4EARTH® polyamides, applauded DOMO for achieving the EcoVadis Gold rating, underscoring the partners' shared values and commitment to sustainable supply chains.

Yves Bonte, CEO of DOMO Chemicals, further commented: "This award is a testament to our unwavering commitment to sustainability. In one year, we have moved from the top 25% to the top 5%, placing DOMO among the best in the industry. This demonstrates our commitment to our ambitious 2030 agenda to be the industry benchmark in sustainability."

EcoVadis, a leading corporate sustainability rating platform, has more than 100,000 member companies. DOMO's award reflects its commitment to improving the environment and society. The company's most recent annual sustainability report, published in July 2023, reaffirms its commitment to core sustainable practices.

Snapshot of DOMO's EcoVadis performance:

- Moving from 73rd to 94th percentile in overall EcoVadis sustainability rating to the top 5%.
- Considerable progress in all pillars, with particular strengths in Environment and Labor & Human Rights
- DOMO's Gold label boosts customers' own sustainability ambitions

The EcoVadis Gold rating celebrates DOMO's significant progress in the chemical sector and sets a precedent for sustainability in the industry.
